Membership Renewal 2010

Dear friends and colleagues,

On behalf of the European Aviation Club we would like to wish you a happy and successful 2010.

While 2009 proved a very difficult year for the aviation industry, the Club continued its efforts to offer its members the opportunity to listen to and meet some of the industry's key players and stakeholders.

Last year the Club organised a very interesting programme of events which included luncheon meetings with: Ulrich Schulte-Strathaus, Secretary General of the Association of European Airlines; Glen Tilton, CEO of United Airlines; Gilles de Kerchove d' Ousselghem, EU Counter-Terrorism Co-ordinator; Bill Glover, MD Environmental Strategy at Boeing Commercial Aircraft ; Tim Clark, CEO of Emirates, and Antony Simigdalas, CEO of the newly created Olympic Air .

Together with the International Bar Association we also organized a successful one-day conference in Brussels on the Cape Town Convention.

Programme for 2010

Our first lunch in the New Year is planned for February 25th when our guest speaker will be Dr. Temel Kotil, CEO of Turkish Airlines. He will talk on Turkish Airlines' continued rapid growth and profitability despite the current crisis affecting most legacy airlines. The invitation will follow soon.

Further lunches are planned and include the following to which invitations have already been sent:

- The new EU Commissioner for Transport (November)
- Mr. Olivier Jankovec, DG of ACI-Europe (March)
- The 2010 Chairman of the AEA , Willie Walsh of British Airways (June)
- Sir Michael Bishop , former Chairman of BMi (on 7th May)
